

ESL ENGLISH LESSON (60-120 mins) – 15th July 2012

The Olympic Games – London 2012

The countdown to the opening ceremony of the 2012 Olympic Games in London continues. Final preparations are being made. The excitement is building. The Olympic flame continues its journey around the UK. Giant Olympic rings have been unveiled across the UK including at Tower Bridge in London. Athletes are moving into the Olympic Village that will become home for more than 17,000 athletes during the games. Athletes from 204 National Olympic Committees are expected to take part. Billions of people are expected to watch the opening ceremony on TV on Friday 27th July that will be broadcast live from London at 9pm.

The opening ceremony at the Olympic Stadium in Stratford, East London, is probably the most important event of the games. A parade of athletes of all the competing nations will take place. They will watch the arrival of the Olympic flame and the igniting of the cauldron which marks the start of the games. The opening ceremony's name is called 'The Isles of Wonder'. Spectators, sportsmen and viewers will see the opening scene which depicts a farmyard! The set of which is called 'Green and Pleasant'. Following this is a splendid performance called 'The Best of British'. Her Majesty The Queen will be greeted at the opening ceremony together with her husband Prince Philip. The Olympic flag will be raised and flown during the duration of the games. A total of 15,000 people will take part at the opening and closing ceremonies.

Of course spectators are keen to see the actual sports. This year will see 26 sports and a total of 39 disciplines. These include athletics; the 100 metres, 200 metres, the 400 metres. We will see archery, badminton, basketball, and even beach volleyball. Other sports include judo, fencing, diving and canoeing. Cycling is popular; BMX, mountain bike, road and track. There will be the ever popular gymnastics featuring artistic and rhythmic gymnastics. We will also see rowing, sailing, table tennis and shooting, not to mention swimming, weightlifting, and wrestling. Whatever the sport every athlete will be competing for that gold, silver or bronze medal.

The Olympic Games – London 2012 – run from Friday 27th July to Sunday 12th August 2012.
