A visit to London 2

I love London! - That's what the T-shirt says in the souvenir shop in Oxford Street. It's what the tourists like to buy when they visit London.

People from all around the world love to visit London. It's a great city. Many like to go on a red double decker bus or ride in a black London taxi. Others use the London Underground.

London is like a huge cooking pot; mixed with different cultures and different nationalities. It is said around a circular mile of Leicester Square there are more than 300 nationalities living and working together!

Tourists love to see London Bridge, Tower Bridge and the Tower of London. Many like to visit the West End, especially Oxford Street and Regent Street. In Leicester Square you can see the top plays, watch the latest movies and experience the vast diversity of nightlife.

Trafalgar Square is famous for Nelson's Column. Nearby is 10 Downing Street. A short walk will get you to Buckingham Palace. Many visitors like to see Big Ben and the Houses of Parliament. The London Eye and the Shard are just across the river Thames. St Paul's Cathedral, Covent Garden and London Zoo are popular tourist spots.

Greenwich is good for a day out in London, as is Hampton Court. You can go by riverboat to both of them. The Docklands Light Railway (DLR) is another way to get to Greenwich, where you can see the Royal Observatory and the famous Cutty Sark clipper ship.

London has many great parks, museums and shops to visit. Kids will love the London Dungeons, Madame Tussauds and the maze at Hampton Court! Check out Notting Hill, the Albert Hall or even the former Olympic Stadium!
