Prince Harry to marry US actress Meghan Markle

Prince Harry is to marry US actress Meghan Markle. The couple officially announced the news on Monday outside Kensington Palace in London, though they actually got engaged earlier in November. They hope to marry in the spring. Prince Harry, 33, is fifth in line to the British throne. Ms Markle is 36.

Prince Harry said he knew Ms Markle "was the one" he wanted to marry "the very first time we met." He added that he was "thrilled" to be engaged. Ms Markle said she was "So very happy, thank you."

Ms Markle's engagement ring was designed by Prince Harry. It features two diamonds, which belonged to his late mother, Diana, Princess of Wales. In the centre of the ring is a diamond from Botswana.

Congratulations came in from other members of the British royal family. The Queen and Duke of Edinburgh said that they were delighted for their grandson and his bride to be. The Duke and Duchess of Cambridge said they were very excited for the couple.

Meghan Markle was born in 1981 in Los Angeles. She lived with her mother, Doria, who is a make-up artist. Her father is a Hollywood lighting director. She went to private schools and later graduated from Northwestern University near Chicago in 2003. Ms Markle was previously married to film producer Trevor Engelson. They divorced in 2013. Markle is known for her role playing character Rachel Zane in the US legal drama 'Suits'.

Prince Harry and Meghan Markle were introduced to each other at an exclusive members club in London. They have been dating since the summer of 2016. She is an actress, a humanitarian campaigner and a former lifestyle blogger. The couple will live in Nottingham Cottage at Kensington Palace in London.
